Monroe County Grand Jury Indicts
Matthew Daniel Ringrose for Multiple Sex Crimes Against Three Victims Under the Age of Seventeen

Rochester, NY- On Tuesday, a Monroe County Grand Jury indicted Matthew Daniel Ringrose, 30, of North Chili, on fourteen felony charges including Rape in the 2nd Degree and Criminal Sexual Act in the 2nd Degree for allegedly engaging in sexual acts with three victims under the age of seventeen. The defendant is accused of falsifying his age and identity to lure young girls with whom he then engaged in sexual acts.

Deputy Chief of the Special Victims Trial Division, Andra Ackerman, will prosecute the case for the People.

“This indictment is a result of a coordinated effort between the Sheriff’s Offices of both Monroe and Ontario Counties,” said Ackerman. “The arrest of this defendant is a great example of effective collaboration between law enforcement partners in our region working to keep our children safe.”

Ringrose, having two previous felony convictions, is currently held in the Monroe County Jail without bail. His arraignment has not yet been scheduled.
